The Kingdom of Happiness

by Jiddu Krishnamurti

This is the first publication of collected talks given by Jiddu Krishnamurti at Eerde Castle in Ommen, to members of The Order of the Star of the East, on the nature of happiness, describing a so called "Kingdom of Happiness" and what it takes to achieve it.

Selected as a boy by leaders of the Theosophical Society to become the next messianic World Teacher, Krishnamurti, a South Indian Brahmin, was groomed and educated in England, and the 'Order was established in 1911 to prepare him and the public for this role. In 1927, when he had apparently manifested as the World Teacher, the organization became simply the 'Order of the Star', based in Ommen, the Netherlands, with Krishnamurti at its head.
